

MAGNIFICENT MOHAIR

Versatile by nature, from opulent throws, rugs, curtains and floor cushions to blankets and clothing, you can now dress yourself and your home in luxuriously soft mohair products made in southern Africa. An all-natural fibre, mohair is the material of choice for the world's fashion elite as well as interior designers, crafters and industrial-fibre specialists.

THIS PAGE The model wears a mohair Numbela blanket from Coral Stephens Handweaving and a luxury mohair shawl from Abafazi Gallery. Hat from Accessorize. Shoes and knitted tights from Woolworths.

OPPOSITE The model is wearing a cream mohair blanket on Spin Knits, and sitting on a cushion from Sally Arnold Mohair. The backdrop is a Namib Curtain from Mohair Weavers. Boots and knitted tights from Woolworths.

PHOTOS: MICKY HICKLE; PRODUCTION: MARIANNE BURKE AND HEIDI FINESTONE; ASSISTANT: LEANNE FOURIE; MODEL: ANGELA MARTINAGLIA; HAIR AND MAKE-UP: SHELLEY WARD

THIS PAGE The model wears a white drop-shoulder Gele from Maluzi Fashions, a Motshane blanket (wrap-around) from Coral Stephens Hand-weaving and Tjerrie mohair lace knee-highs from Cape Mohair. She is sitting on an Elsa Barnard rug from Panga-Panga Furniture Shop.

OPPOSITE The model is wrapped in a luxury mohair double throw from BabyMo and the olive "Mink" luxury mohair throw from Abafazi Gallery. The Lara K Ecu with Rose handbag is from The Mill, Mohair & Décor Centre. Boots and knitted tights from Woolworths.

